Good Morning:

Enclosed is what Mayor Dilkens will use to kick this off.

You will note the conclusion of his remarks is an intro/hand off to Chief to provide an update.

I think for the Chief's remarks / suggested:

- Update about what the current situation is on the ground and any relevant status report that makes sense to disclose to public/media
- Repeat request for federal support (i.e. explain the 100 officer request)
- Speak carefully again about the need to maintain safety and security and that we can not remove individuals by force
- Talk about the need to maintain First Responder access to Sandwich Towne and the impact that East-West road closures can have on welfare of those who might need assistance on the west end (i.e challenge to get to Sandwich in case of emergency)

Obviously fully respect that there will be operational details and information that WPS will not want to share publicly.

Thoughts?

Many thanks, in advance.

Good Morning, Jill

Please connect with Natalya in CCU to prepare some key messaging and statement for Chief Mizuno in preparation of today's noon press conference.

I have copied Chief of Staff Andrew Teliszewsky from the Mayor's Office who may wish to share with you some key messaging that would dovetail nicely, logically and appropriately with police messaging. The mission of the Windsor Police Service is to resolve this situation through the use of diplomacy and negotiation in seeking a solution that is safe and sustainable for our community, etc. Thanks.

Jay
